

Come hear how you can get involved in criminal justice reform in Massachusetts!

Join the Coalition for Effective Public Safety (CEPS)

A statewide coalition of advocates, program providers, people on parole, formerly incarcerated men and women, friends and relatives of prisoners,
and human rights activists

For a presentation and discussion on:

1. Parole Reform
2. Solitary Confinement Reform
3. Compassionate release for debilitated and dying prisoners

We want to hear your ideas and suggestions and build this movement!

Wednesday, October 1, 6:30-8pm

Location: Egleston Square YMCA

3134 Washington Street

Roxbury, MA 02130

Event will be held in both English and Spanish.

Light refreshments will be served.

Project (PLAP), EMIT -- End Mass Incarceration Together, of Unitarian Universalist Mass Action Network, MA CURE

For more information contact: Lizz Matos, lmatos@plsma.org, 617-482-2773 x105

T accessible: Stonybrook Station on Orange Line, take a right out of the station onto Boylston Street, continue until Washington Street, take a left on Washington Street and it will be on your right; Also on the 42 bus line.